

A minimalist map of Marksewo, Poland. The map features a network of thin black lines representing roads and a thicker black line representing a river or canal. A large, irregularly shaped area is shaded in light gray, likely representing a forest or a specific land use. The map is enclosed in a thick black border.

MARKSEWO

POLSKA

53.3755°N / 21.744°E

